

Nagy, Alfred B.

MADE AN ENSIGN 31 1943

Alfred B. Nagy, 334 East Broad Street, was among more than 1000 midshipmen to be graduated recently from the U. S. Naval Reserve Midshipman's School located on the campus of the University of Notre Dame with a commission as ensign. Speakers at the graduation exercises were Rear Admiral Wat T. Culverius, president of Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Worcester, Mass., and Capt. H. P. Burnett, U. S. N., commanding officer of the Midshipmen's School. He is a graduate of Moravian College.

May 31, 1943