Miss Rosati Is Bride of Lt. Castiello

SEP 16 1944

The marriage of Miss Catherine Marie Rosati, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Rosati, of 120 West Greenwich Street, and Lieut. Richard E. Castiello, U. S. Army, son of Mrs. Pasquale Castiello, of 721 East Fifth Street, and the late Mr. Castiello, took place at 5 o'clock this afternoon in Holy Rosary Church. The Rev. Joseph Pugliese officiated.

Mr. Rosati gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory satin, with finger-tip veil falling from a crown of orange blossoms, and carried a prayer book with an orchid marker. Her sister, Miss Susan Rosati, was her only attendant. She was gowned in aqua taffeta and carried yellow roses.

Joseph Castiello, of Washington, D. C., was his brother's best man. Ushers were Nicholas Mairello and John Conti.

The church was decorated with palms and bouquets of assorted flowers. A brief recital was given before the ceremony by Mrs. John Conti, organist, and Joseph Garin, violinist. Mrs. Conti played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Rose Longo, who sang "Ave Maria."

A dinner for the immediate families was served at the Old Sun Inn, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip. The bride will reside with her parents for the duration.

The bride attended Liberty High School and was graduated from Bethlehem Business College in 1942. She is in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Liberty High School, class of 1938, and was attending Lehigh University when he went on active duty in June, 1943. He was sent to Aberdeen, Md., for basic training and was transferred to Lehigh for a semester of ASTP. He attended Ordnance Officers Candidate School at Aberdeen and was commissioned a second lieutenant on July 8. He is a member of Pi Tau Sigma, honorary mechanical engineering fraternity.
