

Blake, Melvin

Doris Holland Is Wedded to Melvin Blake

DEC. 29 1943
Miss Doris Holland, of Bangor, R. D. 1, daughter of Paul Holland, formerly of Bangor, became the bride of Melvin Blake, of Pen Argyl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blake, of Pen Argyl, in a quiet wedding ceremony conducted Monday evening in the parsonage of the Zion Methodist Church, Pen Argyl, with the Rev. Charles E. Wonderly, pastor, officiating. The couple were attended by Miss Alice LaBarre, of Bangor, as the maid-of-honor, and George Hartman, of Bangor, as the best man. The couple will reside in Bangor.

The bride attended the Bangor High School and the Pen Argyl High School, having resided a short time in Pen Argyl. She is employed at the Bangor mill of Bangor Mills, Inc.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Pen Argyl High School, where he was varsity center on the football team and a varsity guard on the basketball team. He is in the U. S. Navy, having recently been transferred from Bermuda to Norfolk, Va., where he will attend special training school.

Dec 29, 1943