

Staff Sergeant

Elvin Shook has been promoted to the rank of Staff Sergeant, according to word received by his brother, Oscar Shook, 110 First St., Hellertown. Stationed overseas for almost two years, he is serving with the Amphibious Forces in San Fernando, Philippines, at present.

S/Sgt. Shook saw duty in England and in France before going to the Pacific Theatre. He entered the service in December 1943 while employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. Shook is a graduate of Bethlehem High School and is well-known in Hellertown borough as a hunter and fisher.
