

Fradenick, Gil

WORD OF PROMOTION

Word was received from Camp Pinedale, Calif., today, that Gil Fradenick has been promoted to corporal as of March 15. Corporal Fradenick has been at Camp Pinedale since December of last year and is assigned to the supply office. The new corporal is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fradenick, of Bethlehem, Pa., and attended the Bethlehem High School.

In 1928 Fradenick went to work for Warner Brothers' Theaters, Inc., and was employed by them continuously until he joined the armed forces. His rise with Warner Bros. recalls some of Horatio Alger's Tales as Fradenick started with the firm as an usher and rose up through the ranks until he was manager of the Capitol Theater, one of the outstanding theaters in Troy, Pa., where he made his home.
