

Berger, Roy Franklin

Walnutport Soldier
Arrives In India

1943

Pvt. Roy Franklin Berger, son of Edmond Berger and the late Catherine Berger, Walnutport, who was 26 years old last Friday, recently arrived in India, according to word received by relatives and friends. In the Army since May, 1940, when he enlisted for foreign service, Pvt. Berger has been home only for a 30-day furlough when he returned to the States last July. He was at Camp Carson, Colo., for a short time before going abroad again. He had been living with his brother, Clayton Berger, Rockville, at the time of his enlistment.
