

Bakaysa, Alexis

Home On Furlough

Cpl. Alexis Bakaysa, son of Rev. and Mrs. Alexis Bakaysa, 416 Edward Street, is home on a 15-day furlough.

A member of the First Troop Carrier Command, he is stationed at an Army Air Field in Missouri. He was inducted December 5, 1942 and received training as an airplane mechanic at Amarillo Field, Texas. From here he was sent to the University of California where he graduated from the ASTP training course in March, 1944.

NOV 29 1944
Cpl. Bakaysa is a Bethlehem Business College graduate and was employed by the Liquor Control Board before entering the service.

Nov 29, 1944