Bethlehem Seabees Prove Good Hunters

Two Bethlehem boys, stationed at the Naval Construction Training Center at Quoddy Village, Maine, met with great success last weekend.

NOV 20 1943

The boys, Andrew Kuruc, SF 3-c, and William Fulmer, MM 2-c, bagged two deer on a hunting trip while on a 36-hour liberty. The weight of the deer were 120 pounds and 155 pounds. They were bagged in Washington County, Maine, which is noted for its deer.

These Seabees lived up to the motto of the Construction Battalion, "Can Do."

Their mates are going to enjoy deer meet at Sunday chow.
