

Trumbore, John H.

John H. Trumbore
Trains Chinese Sailors

John H. Trumbore, Seaman 1/C, Third and Wyandotte Sts., is serving on the USS LST 1075, moored at Mole Pier at Tsingtao, North China resort city, helping in the Navy's program of training Chinese naval personnel.

The 1075 is one of three tank landing ships being used as training ships for Chinese officers and men. Trumbore and other crew members act as instructors to the Chinese recruits.

Before coming here, the 1075 took part in the invasions of Eniwetok, Saipan and Okinawa, took occupation troops to Korea and repatriated 1,400 Japs from Saishu.

January 29, 1946