

Oravek, David

Gets Navy Promotion

APR 6 1944

In a letter written to relatives Bethlehem George Oravek recently promoted to storekeeper second class in the Navy, revealed the fact that he had an interesting encounter with another Bethlehem gob, Jay Hinnerschietz, seaman first class and radio man, somewhere in the South Pacific. Though the boys had not known each other "back home," it was with a great deal of pleasure that the two boys discovered that they both were from the same town, and were able to compare notes on things of mutual interest. Seaman Oravek is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Oravek, 742 East Sixth Street; Hinnerschietz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hinnerschietz, 1430 Chelsea Avenue.

April 6, 1944