

Ford, Charles S.

Three Bethlehemites At Davidson College

Three Bethlehem young men have arrived at Davidson College, Davidson, N. C., for a course of instruction lasting approximately five months prior to their appointment as aviation cadets in the Army Flying Training Command. They are Pvt. Charles S. Ford of 554 East Goepp Street, Pvt. Michael V. Albertine of 1122 Monacacy Street, and Pvt. Merritt W. Jacoby of 2544 Easton Avenue.

AUG 23 1943

During this period of training they will take numerous academic courses, as well as elementary flying training. Upon completion of the course they each will be classified as a navigator, pilot or bombardier and go on to schools of the Flying Training Command for training in these specialties.

Aug 23, 1943