

Kosik, Julius

Springtown Soldier Promoted
Promoted to the rank of private first class about two weeks ago, Julius Kosik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kosik, is spending a five-day furlough at the home of his parents near Springtown. Pfc. Kosik is stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind. He is a member of Christ Lutheran Church, Springtown, and attended Springtown schools. He was formerly employed in the Bethlehem Steel Company foundries. He left for New Cumberland October 21, 1942.

FEB 27 1943

JULIUS KOSIK

Feb. 27, 1943