

Simon, Harry J.

HE'S CAPTAIN SIMON NOW—
Word of the promotion of Harry J. Simon (above) to the rank of captain in the United States Army, infantry arm, was contained in a telegram from the young soldier on January 4 to his mother, Mrs. Louis Simon, who, with Mr. Simon reside now in Philadelphia. They left Bethlehem about a year ago. Captain Simon graduated at Bethlehem High in '37 and at Gettysburg College in '41. He was captain of the BHS varsity and captained the Gettysburg quintet also. He was also something of a baseball player, playing varsity at both school and college. He went directly into the army from college with the rank of second lieutenant and was sent to Camp Polk, La., where he still is on duty, training rookies. He became a first lieutenant in the latter part of 1942 and now has received his captaincy. He is unmarried.
