

Wilmer, Charles

LIKES JOB AS COOK

Pfc. Charles Wilmer, another of the Lower Saucon's "boys" in a letter to Robert Scheetz, secretary of the Township Division of the Saucon Valley Defenders, tells interestingly of his task as one of the camp cooks, and the sample menu which he gives would indicate that the life of a soldier from that angle is far from dull. He writes that he is happiest when he can have a good meal and cool drinks ready for the men when they get back from a long hike under the broiling sun of Louisiana—he is stationed at Camp Livingstone. Here is the menu which he prepared recently: Roast pork, filling, mashed potatoes, fresh corn on the cob, fresh lima beans, cole slaw, celery, hot rolls, iced lemonade and pineapple pie. "And do the fellows like Pennsylvania Dutch cooking," he comments.
