

Jacoby, Francis W.

Local Paratrooper On His Way Home

T/5 Francis W. Jacoby, 21-year-old paratrooper of 260 Eighth Ave., this city, is on his way home. How soon he will get there depends on shipping facilities and the speed of the separation center. He was recently relieved of his duties and sent to a replacement depot in Smdai, Japan.

Inducted Jan. 13, 1943, he went overseas in August, 1944, and was awarded the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon, Philippine Liberation Ribbon and the Victory Medal. His mother, Mrs Frieda Jacoby, lives at the Eighth Ave. address. JAN 15 1946
