

Cassano, Joseph F.

Receives Wings

MAY 25 1944

Corporal Joseph F. Cassano, 1149 East Fourth Street, has completed a course in radio at Scott Field, Illinois, and May 13 graduated and received his wings as a radio-gunner at the Army Gunnery School, Yuma, Ariz. He attended the local elementary schools and was graduated from Nazareth High School and attended Lehigh University. At the present time he is spending a 15 day furlough at home and at the completion of his furlough he will report to Lincoln Air Field Lincoln, Nebraska, for his new assignment.

May 25, 1944