

Andrew, Anderson B.

Silver Bars

WILMINGTON, California—Anderson B. Andrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Andrew, 435 East Main Street, Pen Argyl, Pennsylvania, recently was promoted from First Lieutenant to Captain at the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation.

A graduate of Pen Argyl High School and Bethlehem Business College, Captain Andrew was assigned to this vital Army Transportation Corps installation, where he serves as Officer in Charge of the Accomplishments Section of the Port Transportation Division, from the San Francisco Port in October of 1943. He has seen overseas duty as Cargo Security Officer on an Army transport in the South Pacific, and previously was stationed with the War Department in Washington and with the Air Corps Troop Carrier Command at Stout Field, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Captain Andrew and his wife, Dorothy, make their home at 373½ Walnut Avenue, Long Beach, California.
