

Mills, Olive E.

Bethlehem WAAC Now At Camp Monticello

Third Officer Olive E. Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Mills, 375 Fifteenth Avenue, Bethlehem, has recently reported for duty to Branch B, Fifth WAAC Training Center, Camp Monticello, Ark.

A member of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps since January 15, when she enrolled at Philadelphia, Third Officer Mills received her basic training at the Second WAAC Training Center, Daytona Beach, Fla. She received her gold bars after completing the intensive WAAC Officer Candidate School course at Fort Des Moines, Ia., May 10. Her rank corresponds to an Army Second Lieutenant.

Before enrolling in the WAAC, Third Officer Mills was employed as secretary to C. E. Jacobs, general manager of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation billing division.

A graduate of Westminster College in New Wilmington, Pa., Third Officer Mills is a member of Theta Upsilon, national social fraternity. Her brother, Private Logan Mills, is stationed with the Army in Tennessee.

May 24, 1943