

Wilson, Wallace

MISS JANE E. STUBBS IS SOLDIER'S BRIDE

DEC 19 1942

Marriage to Corp. Wallace Wilson Solemnized in North Side Church.

Miss Jane Elizabeth Stubbs, daughter of Mrs. William G. Bickell, 1823 Maple Street, was married this afternoon at 2 o'clock to Corporal Wallace Wilson, son of Mrs. Charles Wilson and the late Mr. Wilson, in First Presbyterian Church, North Side. The Rev. Roger Enloe, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. A small reception for the members of the families followed at the Hotel Bethlehem.

Mr. Bickell gave his step-daughter in marriage. Mrs. Rudolph Reese was matron of honor and Miss Helen Ernst, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Charles Wilson was his brother's best man and ushers were A. MacDougal and George Stubbs, a brother of the bride.

The bride's dress was of ivory satin, with train. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of heirloom lace. She carried a prayerbook with a shower of white orchids and bouvardia.

Mrs. Reese wore a gown of turquoise taffeta with headdress of ostrich tips to match and her bouquet was of pink sweet peas.

Miss Ernst's gown was of dusty rose taffeta, with headdress of ostrich tips. She carried a bouquet of blue sweet peas.

Corporal Wilson is on a brief furlough during which time the young couple will take a short wedding trip. On their return, their temporary address will be 201 East Forty-seventh Street, New York City.

Dec 19, 1942