James Schnabel
Given Farewell Party 1943

The engineering department of the Bethlehem Fabricators gave a farewell party for James Schnabel, 242 South Madison Street, Allentown, last evening in the Elks Home. The engineers feted the guest of honor in an informal manner and presented him with a gift. James Bush was chairman.

Mr. Schnabel left the company's employ today. He enlisted in U. S. Navy Sea Bees and will report for training on June 16.
