Four Area Soldiers <sup>Aug 27 1943</sup>
At Jefferson Barracks

Four Bethlehem area soldiers are among the newly-arrived at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. This historic military post, on the Mississippi River a few miles south of St. Louis, is a replacement training center for the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command.

The four are Pvt. Robert K. Hartzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hartzell, 1116 Stanley Avenue, Bethlehem, who was employed as a general clerk at the Bethlehem Steel Company and attended Fountain Hill High School; Pvt. Joseph F. Cassano, husband of Mrs. America K. Cassano, 1149 East Fourth Street, Bethlehem, who was employed as an annealer by Bethlehem Steel Company, and attended Nazareth High School and Lehigh University; Pvt. Edwin H. Young Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Young of 732 Seneca Street, Bethlehem, who was employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company as a heat tester and attended Bethlehem High and Moravian College, and Pvt. Robert W. Sloyer, husband of Mrs. Robert W. Sloyer, 34 Durham Street, Hellertown, who also was employed by Bethlehem Steel Company as a clerk and attended Fountain Hill High School.
