

Heist, William J.

Ends Navy Service, Returns to Lehigh

William James Heist, son of Harry W. Heist, 1722 West Market St., has been discharged from the U. S. Navy. He enlisted October, 1942, took his "boot" training at Newport, R. I., and held the rank of FC2/C. He was on duty in the South Pacific on the USS Putnam.

Heist will continue his studies at Lehigh University and will be associated with his father in the electrical contracting business with offices at 508 Dakota St.

February 25, 1946