

Gomery, Constance R.

WAVE IN WASHINGTON

Constance R. Gomery, Y3-c, daughter of Mrs. Albert Gomery, 15 East Broad Street, Bethlehem, is among the numerous members of the Navy Women's Reserve now on duty in the Navy Department at Washington. Miss Gomery is secretary to the assistant chief of the planning section of the real estate division of yards and docks.

The young reservist was last employed as secretary to the general manager at St. Luke's Hospital, this city. She enlisted in the WAVES February 16, was trained at Hunter College, N. Y., and assigned to duty in the nation's capital, where she reported May 1. AUG 19 1943
