

Bennett, John
" , Harold

BROTHERS MAKING GOOD IN ARMY—John and Harold Bennett (above), brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Bennett, 716 Radcliffe Street, who are in Uncle Sam's armed forces and both are making good. A member of the Coast Artillery, stationed "somewhere" in Connecticut, the former was recently promoted to the rank of sergeant. He joined the service about 14 months ago. Harold, a graduate of Liberty High School, class of '41, is completing a course in a U. S. aviation school, "somewhere" in New Jersey. Prior to joining Uncle Sam's forces, both brothers had been employes of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Sep 12, 1942