

Lambert, Earl J.

NOV 14 1942

PROMOTION ANNOUNCED—Earl J. Lambert, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lambert, 254 East Etwain Street, this city, stationed in Washington, D. C., with Battery E, 71st A.A.A., U. S. Army, was recently promoted to corporal, it was announced late Friday by his parents. Corporal Lambert, who recently returned to his outfit after a two-day furlough spent with his family here, was given a family party during the short leave. Among those attending were his brothers, Paul and Arthur and their families, of Bethlehem, and Miss Josephine Stahl, of Nazareth. The young soldier has a large number of his relatives and friends in Nazareth and Pen Argyl, in addition to those here.

November 14, 1942