

O'Brien, Madeline J.

ARMY NURSING CORPS OFFICER SAFE OVERSEAS

Lieut. Madeline J. O'Brien, A. N. C., sister of Mrs. Robert Pfeifle, Jr., 1850 West North Street, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boehmer, Wappinger's Falls, N. Y., former residents of Allentown, has arrived safely overseas, according to information received by her parents from the War Department. DEC 24 1942

Lieut. O'Brien trained at St. Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., served as public health nurse at Wappinger's Falls for four years, was night supervisor at St. Francis Hospital for four years and supervisor at Wassaic State School, Wassaic, N. Y., for seven years.

She enlisted in the Army Nursing Corps in March, 1941 and received her commission as first lieutenant following a 14-month training period at Pine Camp, Watertown, N. Y., from where she was transferred to Indiantown Gap, Pa., and then to Camp Kilmer, N. J. She was made chief nurse of her outfit overseas.

December 24, 1942