

Rankey, John E.

Spends Furlough With Mother

Sgt. John E. Rankey left this morning for Fort Monroe, Va., after spending a short furlough with his mother, Mrs. E. G. Rankey, of 958 Cherokee Street.

Sgt. Rankey was drafted in January, 1941. His brother, Pvt. Edward G. Rankey, is stationed at Fort Eustis, Va., where he receives his specific training.

JAN 29 1943

January 29, 1943