

Wasileski, Albert R.

Local Soldier With Potsdam Conference
Area Protectors

Sgt. Albert R. Wasileski, 5 West Church Street, was among those commended by President Harry S. Truman during his stay at the Big Three Conference in Potsdam.

The President's commendation, which was addressed to Major Gen. Floyd Parks, commanding general of the First Airborne Army and the U. S. Berlin District, read in part: "I have noted with pride and pleasure the excellent service provided by the officers and men of your command. I congratulate you on the morale, courtesy and military smartness of the officers and men of your command who have come under my observation."

Sgt. Wasileski, who is a member of the 3866th Signal Service Company, was one of the 3300 officers and men who operated and administered the American section of the Big Three Conference area.

August 21, 1945