

Yeisley, Edwin

T/5 Edwin Yeisley
Receives Discharge

T/5 Edwin B. Yeisley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Yeisley, 1220 North New St., was honorably discharged at Indiantown Gap Jan. 18, 1946, after serving 26 months.

A member of the 739th Field Artillery, he participated in five major campaigns for which he wears battle stars, Normandy, Northern France, Central Europe, Rhineland and Ardennes. At one time during the fighting last year, T/5 Yeisley acted as radio operator for a forward artillery observation and was on combat duty for 260 days without withdrawing for a rest. He saw action with the Third and Ninth armies.

After taking a "long, good rest," T/5 Yeisley intends to return to his former place of employment at the Bethlehem Steel Company. He is a Bethlehem High School graduate.
