

Kindred, Robert

SPENDS FURLOUGH HERE

Corp. Robert Kindred Given Party
at Parents' Home.

Corporal Robert Kindred, a member of the anti-aircraft unit of the U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Sheridan, Ill. is enjoying a five-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Kindred at 912 Geissinger Street.

At the termination of his respite, Corporal Kindred, a former member of the 213th Regiment, Coast Artillery, Anti-Aircraft, will leave for Akron, O, where he will enroll in an ordnance school.

On Wednesday evening he was tendered a party at the home of his parents. Guests present included Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kindred, Mr.

and Mrs. John Ruloff and family, Grace Shively, Harry Ritter, Nancy Freudenberger, Mrs. E. Roth, Mrs. A. Rockstroh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCarty, Frank Pensenburger and Angeline Veet.

NOV 13 1942

November 13, 1942