

Leiderman Jr., Frederick

Three Brothers Now In Service Two Years

Three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leiderman of 524 Ontario Street are observing two years of service with the U. S. Navy today. The three boys all enlisted at the Allentown Fair two years ago and entered service together, receiving training at Great Lakes, ISEP 22 1944

John, husband of the former Mary Slavics, 517 Schaffer Street, is a gunner's mate second class serving at San Francisco. He was formerly employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Robert is a coxswain, stationed presently at Gulfport, Miss. The third brother, Frederick Jr., is serving in the Pacific as an aviation machinist mate second class. He also worked at the Bethlehem Steel Company prior to entering the Navy.

September 22, 1944