

Curry, Richard J.
Francis

Commissioned

NOV 9 1944

Richard J. Curry, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Curry, 1105 Russell Avenue, has received a Second Lieutenant's commission at the Carlisle Medical Center and completed a furlough with his wife, the former Flo Bheam of Johnstown, Pa.

Inducted into the armed service May 7, 1941, he received training at the Carlisle Barracks, Pa., and the Carlisle Medical Center. Prior to his induction, he was employed by the Silverberg and Goldberg clothing store.

Lt. Curry attended Fountain Hill High School. A brother, Francis Curry, is with the Signal Corps and has served in the Pacific area for the past 2 1-2 years.

Lt. Curry and his wife will travel to Camp Barkley, Tex., where he will continue his studies in Surgical Administration.

November 9, 1944