Complete 'Boat' Course

MAR 8 1944
William and Robert Masteller, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Masteller, 1306 Clay Street, both serving in the U. S. Navy, returned to duty after a 21-day furlough here. They have completed their boot training at Sampson, N. Y., and received the rank of seaman, second class.

William reports to Great Lakes Training School for basic engineering study. He was 18 in February and was formerly employed by the Pep Boys.

Robert returns to Sampson to take up signaling. He was an apprentice machinist at the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the Navy.
