Cooling Down After Practice...

irst impressions

For many, their first impression of Liberty High School is one of anxiety and trepidation; as we grow into our environment, we learn to adjust and get into the rhythm.

hey say that first impressions last, but that doesn't seem to apply to Liberty. On the first day of school, everyone is nervous. Freshmen know that they are destined to become hopelessly lost in the Commons, and the Seniors have heard horrible rumors about their English AP teacher and fear that they won't graduate. The anxiety of the first day is only added to by the fact that you always seem to be the only person to arrive late to every class, and the only person you know at your lunch table. However, "come what may, time and the hour runs through the roughest day." Time goes by, and we learn our way around, and find out that our teachers are really sweethearts. We make friends and join clubs and learn about the back stairs, and, when we attend our first football game, dance, or theatre production, we find a common feeling of excitement as we join the LHS community.

Gimmie an "L"...

The freshman class of 1999 experience a rally for the first time with perfect pep; and they seem to enjoy it! These guys are as loud, wild, and crazy as they come and fit easily into the LHS family.

A First Meal...

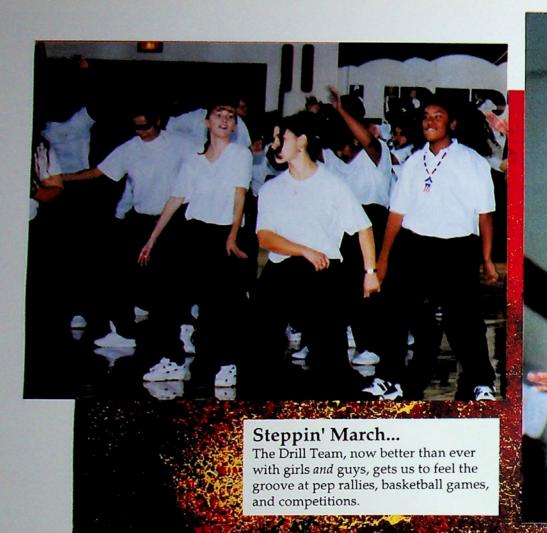

Students wait impatiently to be fed a delicious, nutrious meal at Freshman Orientation. Food doesn't get any better than in our lovely (hot, stuffy, noisy) cafeteria.

Teachers With Class...

Mr. Schaffer and Miss Grant, the freshman class advisors, are ready to "start up" the 1999 Liberty graduating class as they prepare for the "Liberty Cheer".

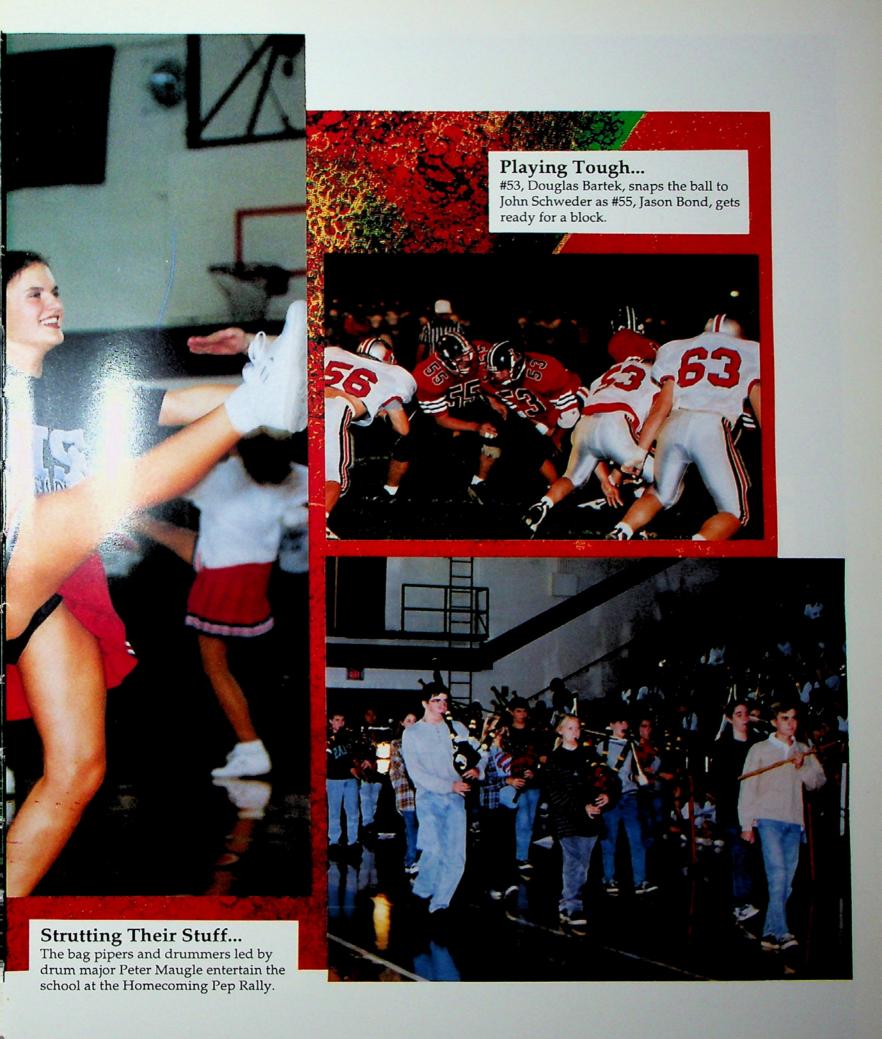

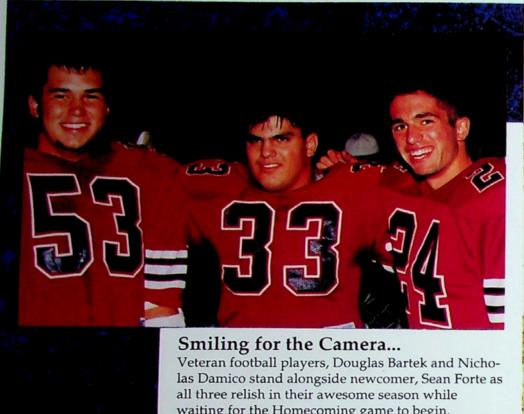

Cchool spirit

You can call us the "Red and Blue." You can call us the "Grenadiers." You can call us the "Hurricanes." And, you can call us "THE BEST!"

ed and blue always seem to bring out enthusiasm in Liberty students. Whether we identify ourselves as Hurricanes or Grenadiers, we are proud of our school and know how to show our pride. At pep rallies, the entire school can come together and rouse enthusiasm for our cause. From the shouting cries of students in the bleachers, the cheerleader's excitement, the drill team's constant rhythm, and the show of our excellent athletes, Liberty becomes a corporeal manifestation of school spirit. Spirit Week is a week of fun and pride. Students spend the Week dressing up, decorating halls, competing with the other classes, and, when we finally play our hometown rival, Freedom, we pull it all together.

The Life and Times of a Liberty High School Student: whether it be with friends, teachers, family, or alone, you can always find Liberty

hether it's eating lunch at Kosta's or in class, students spend a lot of time hangin' out with their friends. When the security guards aren't too busy to break it up, students can be found clumped in the halls laughing and enjoying themselves between classes. It seems that no matter the time or place, students just like to hang out. Even some Junior and Senior study halls have become havens for students to trade the latest gossip, eat some much-needed breakfast, or (if there's nothing better to do) do some homework. Outside the stately halls of LHS, students chill with the sports teams, go bowling, hang at Buzzy's Billiards, or take in a movie. When students find the need to feed, they flock to the Bethlehem Dairy Store (Mr. Burkhardt's place) or OPP (old People's Perkins). But, what it all comes down to is that, no matter where they are and what they have to do, Liberty students would probably rather be just hangin' out.

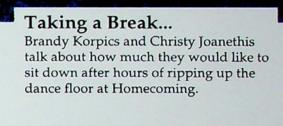

A Piper's Love Affair...

Jaclyn Benko gets ready for another early morning practice before joining her fellow band members.

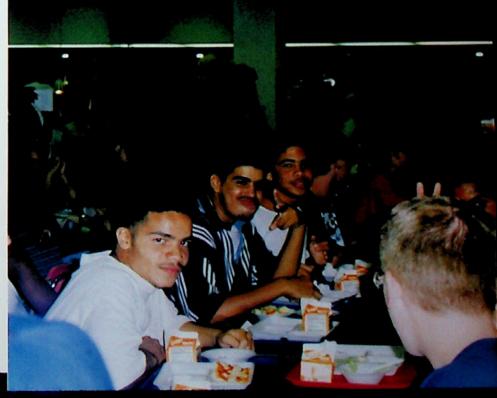

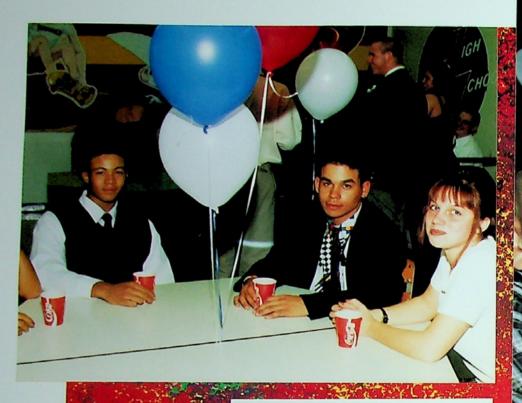

Lunchtime!!!

Here's a view of Adrian Ortiz, Alexander Huertas and Miguel Morales after a hard day of orientation. They deserve lunch after being lost all morning wandering through the maze of halls at Liberty.

Resting Easy...

Homecoming goers, Darnell Hymans, Pablin Rivera and Sandra Bickert, share each other's company while they take a break from the night's events.

From September to June, Liberty students have two things in mind--passing their courses and having fun. But when night falls, Liberty is anything but quiet thanks to proud students showing their spirit.

ight is a relaxed but energetic time for Liberty students. The best qualities of our students are brought out by the outstanding programs in athletics, theatre, and music. School spirit runs rampant among the cheerleaders, not to mention the band and majorettes, at football games. Students dance the night away at Homecoming, the Senior Formal, and (of course) the prom. The fall play, spring musical, choral presentations, and band & orchestra concerts display the talents in the arts of myriad students. Even out of school, students think of spending a night on the town as another way to show their pride in Liberty twenty-four hours a day.

Just Chillin'

Anxiously Waiting...

Summer Sports Kick-Off...

Field hockey star Julia Wiseman and cross country champion Janelle Thomas look rather annoyed with the glare of the sun in their eyes as they chat about whether or not to have a hot dog.

Some days are dry, other days are leaky. Some days you use more force than is necessary. Some days are better than others.

igh school is possibly the most stressful time in our lives. If you manage to make it to school on time, you still have to remember all your homework, make it to both the German Club and FBLA meetings, get from 443 to 860 in four minutes, stay awake for 85 minutes of Calculus, not get busted by Walter on your way to Wawa, wonder why your counselor called you down again, deal with 683 people in the cafeteria (all of whom are in front of you), keep your GPA above 3.2, hit the C above high-C for Shu, present a report on the Puritans, and you still have to fit in time for your social life. Each of us goes through the same hideous routine every day, but it helps to know that for every migraine and for every ten million brain cells we kill stressing out, there's another weekend, another snow day, and another substitute teacher who lets us go early. Just remember: we're all in this together, and it'll all be over soon-when we wake up!

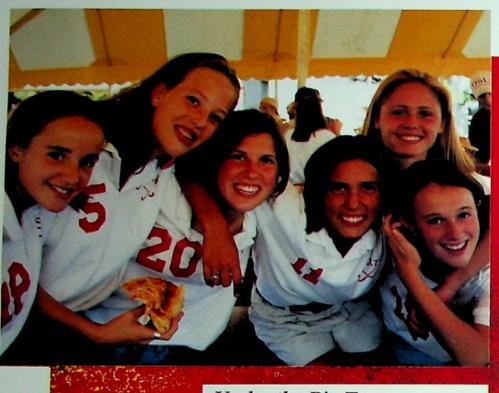

Poor Baby!!!

After tearing her ACL, Kalli Young was unable to play her senior year. Despite this setback, she still committed herself to the team through ways other than spiking a volleyball.

Monday Blues...
Come on kiddies, WAKE UP!!! The wonderful weekend whirlwind is over; it's time to hit the books, not the hay. Just think about tonight's homework!

Under the Big Top...

Kate Taylor, Tara Gibisser, Megan Kintzer, Katherine Schaffer, Julia Wiseman, and Hilary Mace have a blast at the Summer Sports Kick-Off Pep Rally.

Although high school can sometimes give you a broken heart, a bad grade, or a black eye: it can always give you a friend.

hen we first entered Liberty, we only anticipated what awful things might befall us. It seemed as if we'd always know the same people, and we'd be so busy defending ourselves from the onslaught of high school and all that goes with it. Then we start to realize that there are hundreds of people to be our new friends. Each decision out of the dozens we make each day seems like the most important decision we have ever made in our life. We're teenagers, and every choice is life or death--fortunately, with our friends, we somehow find the strength to pull through the entire high school experience and survive. The people who always flash you a smile in the hall, who give you a hug when you need one, or who are there with a shoulder to cry on--those are your real friends.

Dancing the Day Away... Kyriaki Colasante and Colleen Kluttz

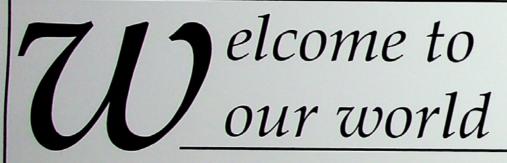

try to forget the troubles of high school by relishing in their friendship through twistin' and shoutin'.

Flying the Flags...

The LHS Colour Guard, in a spectacular display of pride and spirit, along with all the other members of the Grenadier Band, always put on a wonderful performance in the field shows at football games.

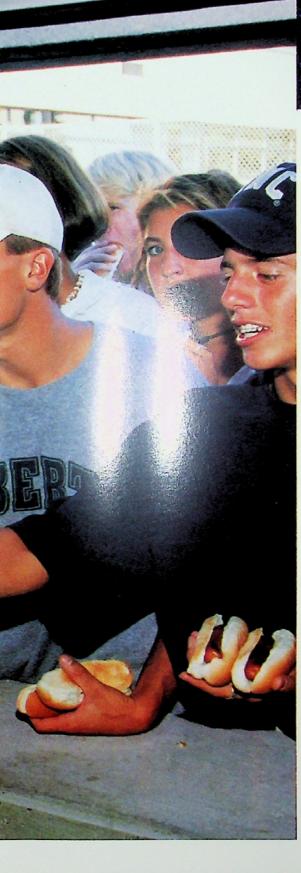

We, the scholars of Liberty HS, have an edge over the other local students, and we are proud of it.

iberty High School seems to be a community wholly independent of the outside world. The faculty seems like some huge family, and the students seem to at least know of each other. When you take everything--academics, athletics, after school activities, and arts--you have defined Liberty High School. Here, everyone knows that the patio is a cool place to hang with your friends, everyone (except the freshmen) knows exactly how fast they have to run to get to lunch and to class, and the ampitheatre is full of students who always seem to be studying for the same (next period) test. Even though some try to defame Liberty's reputation, it's a refuge from the craziness on the streets, at home, and on the job. For some, Liberty has become a home away from home. Even though our student body represents a vast array of styles, interests, values, and goals, it also seems to comprise some sort of equilibrium that smooths itself out into that which is known as our Alma Mater: Liberty High School.

August 30, 1995...

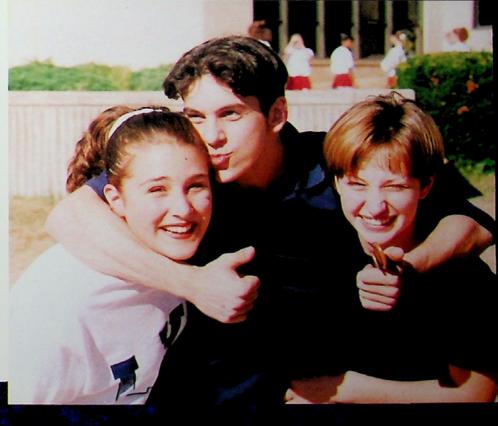

During Sports Kickoff Day (where all the sports teams get together in an athletic opening season ceremony) Emily Wurth, Kristen Quayle, Andrew Ryzewski, Jaime Hensinger, and Chad Hartman eat, mingle, and party with teammates and friends.

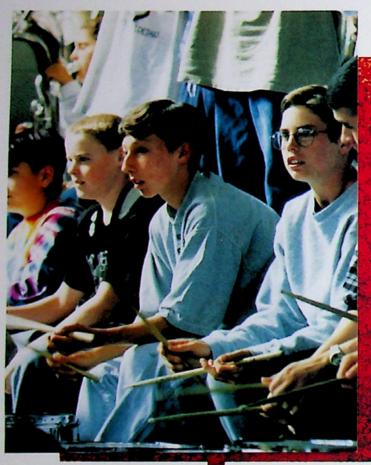

True Chums...

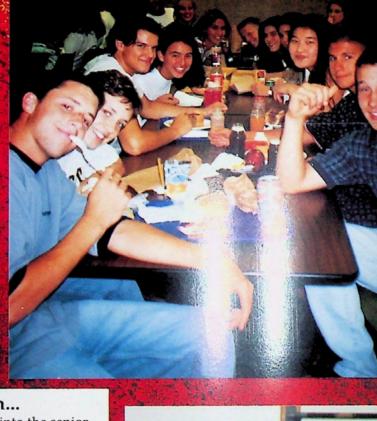

Patrick Richie and Mario Stuart look like they are having a good time at Liberty High School, the best school.

Group Hug...
Aubrey Kenny, George Bibikos, and Sarah Favinger show what a lovely and beautiful place our world is.

Chowing Down...

Laughing It Up...

ood bye Class of 1996! It is time to close another chapter of our lives. We're sure that all of you have had mixed feelings over this final year. The thought that "we don't know exactly where we are headed in September" is swarming around in our heads. We won't be entering Liberty anymore, and for some, the thought of that is spine-tingling and heart-breaking. For others, knowing that may be a relief, and for all of us it is a new beginning... a time to start over.

Whether in college, the work force, or the armed services, we will all encounter new faces and new friends, new goals and new endeavors. These last four years have been a learning experience for all of us, and as we leave LHS, we leave with knowledge that can take us anywhere and memories that can bring smiles to our faces.

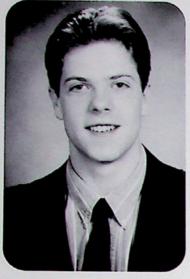

All of us have been traveling on a long, beautiful road these past four years. A road that has not only given us experiences but also has so much more to offer. Good luck on this journey. At times it will bring trials and heartaches, and other times it will bring warmth, happiness, and support. Get ready to take a step into the next chapter, but be careful not to go too fast. Don't miss opportunities, or get caught up in a hurried pace and lose sight of your goals. Please, use your best judgment, follow your heart, and take care of yourselves. Best of luck to all of you.

You know you're a SENIOR when...

...The little munchkins look up to you and make room for you in the hallways.

...You can eat in a separate room with friends.

...You finally realize that all the people you can't stand are totally and completely insignificant to the importance of your life.

Senior Opinions on Project Renaissance

...It's a start--there is still a lot that needs to be done.

...The double block periods make it easier to study.

...We seniors got the short end of the stick.

his year's football team got off to a great start, but seemed to have its problems mid-season. Led by their captains, the 1995 Liberty Hurricanes always put on a good show for the crowds. No matter whether the Hurricanes lost a disappointing game or had a striking comeback in the second half, the games were always filled with excitement and enthusiasm. Sixth year head coach, Dick Ortwein, and his assistants have been happy with the team's steady improvement from week to week. The football team has always been the keystone to Liberty pride and this year was no exception. From pep rallies to games, the Hurricane season has been a fun one.

he Girls' Volleyball Team had a good season; finishing third in the league, the team crushed Parkland to secure their place in the District XI competition. The team is young this year with only three seniors, and due to Kalli Young's preseason injury, the team was down to Erin Kelly and Kristy Robinson.

Coached by Trish Huff and Jean Markovitch, the Hurricanes proved to be a dominating force in the East Penn Conference. In the first half of the season Liberty had wins over seven very strong teams. In the second half, the team has had two wins and three losses. The girls have been in two tournaments (BASD and Dover). and finished fourth out of sixteen in each. Overall, the girl's season proved to be a successful season.

f you looked at their record, the Field Hockey team would have appeared to have had a worthless year full of depressing let downs. However this was not the case. Coach Thear taught the girls the basic skills to build a base for a great future. It was a learning experience for the girls. Another thing the record doesn't show is the tons of fun and memorable experiences they shared. The kind that surface at cocktail parties thirty years down the road. That and the numerous friendships that will last a life time. All in all the girls learned a lot and made this year rather "shick, shick".

erving the way into Districts, the girls' tennis team has really had a great year. Led by captains, Kimberly Luff and Vanessa van den Heuvel, the girls had a smashing season. First year coach, Stephanie Day, has really helped the team out this year. The toughest match, against Freedom, came down to the tie-breaking match with the number one doubles, consisting of senior Kim Luff and Loring Day. Darkness forced a postponement. The final result was a Liberty loss, however the girls kept their heads up as they entered the post-season. In EPC action, Kim Luff took second behind Katie Granson of Freedom. In District XI singles, Kim Luff again took second and advanced into state competition in November. All in all, the girls pulled together and faced each obstacle with grim determination.

he wrestling team performed well this year even though they encountered some difficulties. The team, consisting of thirteen fine young gentlemen, were led by captains Nicholas D'Amico, Jason Kruk, Joey Melendez, Tyson Rissmiller, and Head Coach Karem. The wrestling team battled through the season to finish with a record of twelve wins and seven losses. All of the guys practiced hard and worked through the entire year to demolish their toughest rival, Bethlehem Catholic High School and to tie with LHS' district rival, Freedom High School. Senior Jason Kruk finished with the best individual record of 26 wins and 8

he boys' basketball team had a rough season this year but is looking to improve in the future. Led by senior co-captians Jonathan Santana and Drew Woodward the team charged into competition with high hopes. After a few losses they looked to bounce back and had a big win over Easton. The team had two other seniors Matthew Scharkozy and Stephen Moss, and had strong underclassmen who look to be very promising for the years to come. They had to overcome many injuries, Matt Scharkozy, the starting point, went down with a bad ankle sprain and was out for a couple of games. Then he reinjured it in a game against Dieruff. Jon Santana also injured his ankle in a game against Whitehall. Head Coach Dedopolous was also lost for a big part of the season with knee surgery. The assistant coaches and all the other players stepped up and filled in. Through all the injuries, the team stuck together and finished the season strong.

t's all about team." With a first half record of 9 and 5, the girls' basketball team expected to go very far. Great coaching by Mr. John Tone and hard work had helped these Lady 'Canes to win their 9 games. Along with one of the leading scorers in the EPC, junior co-captain, Center, Taina Ramos, they had gained the reputation of one of the top contenders for the second half EPC title. Junior Latisha Holmes and sophomore Katie Kulp allowed getting the ball up the court an easy task, while 5'11" junior, Kendra Nelson and 6'1" sophomore alternate starter, Mollie Byrd gave the ladies height and strength under the basket. Senior co-captain, Alyson Gould showed them leadership with her all-around great playing, as senior, Kristy Robinson gave them their strongest defense with her quickness and strength. With their great shooting abilities, senior, Amy Opp and junior, Leila DeJesus gave them an edge on the score board. Finally, senior, Nicole Bosco; junior, Rebekah Gordy and Laurel Hartenstine added their heart, hustle, determination, and talent for a great basketball team.

Their motto this year, "It's all about team," has just about said it all. Teamwork has been the key to winning this season. They have worked together, not only as teammates but also as friends to become better players. That's what made the girls' basketball team so unique and special.

his year's swim team was the best in many years. Both the girls and boys had many strong swimmers. Led by captains Sara Dyson, Jacob Eisenhardt, Jason Ellow, and Jeff Smith, the team had much determination and spirit. They also broke many records this year including the time for both the 200m and 400m freestyle relays.

There was many promising swimmers this year. Senior Sara Dyson and freshman Nadine Hudacek have shown their incredible freestyle. Jason Ellow, Aran Glancy, and Andrew Florenz have dominated the IM and long distance freestyle events. Jeff Smith is the top short distance man. Suzannah Beatty, Betsy Kachmar, and Kristina Dorville have also helped the team out greatly.

The swim team was assisted by the diving team. This five-member group helped gain many points and even won some meets for the team. Led by veteran diver Patrick Girvin, the team consists of Stacia Thompson, Adam Eisenhardt, Anne Girvin, and Clare Chiles. This relatively young team has high hopes for the future.

Swimming has become a big sport at Liberty. This year had the biggest turnout in years. The team reached new levels and could barely fit on the bus to go to meets. There is much hope and promise in the future of swimming at Liberty.

Liberty High School's 1995
Homecoming was a weekend of tradition. The festivities were kicked off by a pep-rally in the Memorial Gym on Friday, September 2. Fotball players battled against the security guard's "Leean Team" by throwing bothalls through suspended tires.

Later that night, students attended the Homecoming Dance held in the Old Gymnasium and danced to an electrifying beat. The '95 court, determined by the senior class, was announced, including Jen Bartholomew, Kerry Burke, Alyson Gould, Erin Jones, Jen Kilpatrick, Virginia Largay, Kristen Riegel, Kristen Washburn, Doug Bartek, George Bibikos, Gregg Buehler, Nick D'Amico, Sean Forte, Matt Scharkozy, Jack Schweder, and Joe Spang. On Saturday during the "big" game against Parkland, the Homecoming Queen Kristen Riegel and the King George Bibikos, were announced.

Unfortunately, the Hurricane football team lost, but they played a great game. It proved to be a exciting weekend, sure to be remembered by all.

Spirit Week "A Week of Excitement"

Every year during the first week of November, Liberty participates in the enormous radition called Spirit Week to prepare for our football game against Freedom. Each day of he week students dass up according to different themes. This year there was pajama day, class color day, 70's/ lash day, hat and tie day, and ed and blue day. On Friday, he entire school participated n the Battle of the Classes. Various competitions inluded a scooter race, a threeegged race, and a tug-of-war between the seniors and the faculty. There was also a hall decorating contest which was a tie between the juniors and the seniors. This year all of the classes decorated with the same theme: Disney. Friday night was the big game against Freedom. Unfortunately, our football team lost a close game, but it was an exciting week that is sure to be remembered by all.

-Roberto Somavilla

The Liberty High School Grenadier Band, consisting of 250 members, skillfully represents Her Majesty's Coldstream Guard. Instructed by Mr. Gregory MacGill and Mr. Kevin Long, the band's popularity has traveled as far as London, where they performed this April.

Even Liberty's Orchestra showed their excellence during the Winter Concert, Pop's Concert, and various joint concerts with the choir. Despite the band's rigorous schedule, they still find time to perform at both high school and college football games, parades, pep rallies, and of course 7a.m. practices!

The auxiliaries to the Grenadier Band are comprised of the unique groups of the Colour Guard, Pipe Corps, and majorettes. Sometimes referred to as the "band front", they present the band to the audience with a wonderful impression.

The Colour Guard proudly carries the flags of the United States, United Kingdom, Scotland, Wales, and Liberty High School. The Bagpipe Corps is Liberty's own special trademark. They exhibit great skill and dedication, learning to play the pipes during their high school career.

Finally, the majorettes work as tremendously as any other unit. As the entertaining portion of the band, they perfect their routines for various school-related activities. They are seen at football and basketball games, pep rallies, and other band performances.

Joung Writer & Liberty Life "Masters of the Pen"

Liberty's publications of Liberty Life and Young Writer both display the unique literary talents of students at Liberty High School.

Liberty Life. led by Mr. Hudak, is produced several times a year and it features articles written by numerous staff members. While keeping students up-to-date on Liberty events, it also contains articles in which students express their thoughts and ideas about our school. This year, the editor-in-chief is Carleste Hughes.

Young Writer is a publication in which both its staff members and students get a chance to show their creative writing abilities. With the instruction of Mrs. Bogusky and Mrs. Allan, it annually publishes various poems, stories, and drawings all submitted by Liberty students. Its editor-in-chief is Ricardo Signes.

school. Students from each club enjoy staying after school to develop their talents.

The Photo Club is headed by Mr. Carl Langkamer and Mr. Samuel Creyer. Students work in the darkroom to develop film and also mount them. Much of these students' work is on display during the Annual Arts Festival held each May.

The LHS Knitting Club is another organization of students enjoying the arts. Members stay after school on Thursdays to join advisor Ms. Lorraine Bajor to knit things such as scarves and mittens. The students involved love this activity and are a rather "close knit" group of friends.

One can even study for the SAT's during clubtime. Under the direction of Mrs. Remo, students can prepare themselves for this growing technology.

The Writing Center and the Math Lab are facilities at Liberty High School devised as tutoring centers for students that are having difficulty in their English or selected Math courses. Open everyday of the week for the convenience of LHS students, they offer both teacher and student tutors to assist in any way possible.

Located in Room 842 in the Klein Classroom Center, the Writing Center has highly qualified student tutors. Before becoming a tutor, each had to achieve a prerequisite score on the Test of Standard Written English and also had to be recommended by an English teacher.

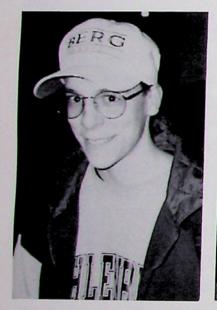

The Math Lab is located in Room 215 and also has highly qualified tutors. Any student can visit the Math Lab or the Writing Center by securing a pass from their current Math or English teachers.

The LHS Foreign Language Clubs, consisting of the German, French and Spanish Clubs, give students a chance to learn about the culture of the language they study. Mrs. Heidi Fritts, Mrs. Carolyn Roman, Dr. John McAndrew, and Mrs. Maryse Stanley advise the club members with the organization of cultural events such as the International Dinner; all three clubs meet and dine together with food from various countries. Coreign exchange students & ISC "A view from abroad"

International Student Council is an opportunity for Liberty students to learn about different council is and to help make the foreign exchange students feel more comfortable in our school

Led by Miss Loredana DiStravolo, ISC members show the American culture to the exchange students, as well as discuss the other students' cultures. ESOL students are also involved in this club.

Some ISC members attended the fall play, "It's a Wonderful Life," together. Along with the Spanish Club, they visited Boston in the spring to show the exchange students a "great American city." Their trip was funded through various sales, mostly candy.

This year at Liberty, there were seven exchange students from all different parts of the world, speaking many different languages. The majority of these brave students stayed for one year with families throughout Bethlehem. Many got involved in various school activities, including sports, language clubs, and orchestra. ISC gave great experiences and memories to its members, both American and not.

Overall, are you glad you came here? Did you get homesick? Do you think that you'll come back (to live or visit)?

"I am glad that I came here...I think I'll come back (to visit) when I have enough money."- Jascha

"...I want to come here again in the near future at any cost..."- Yasuto

"I'm glad that I came...I didn't only get homesick, but I still am...but I'm sure that I'll come back to visit Bethlehem, I don't think I'll come back to live."- Nina

"I am glad because it is an experience not everybody makes...I don't know if I will come back, but I think I will. But just for visiting because my real home will always be in Germany."- Daniela

"I'm glad. This new experience made me be... more concerned about my friends and family...I'm thinking about college..."- Diego

"...I think I will miss America so much. There are many things that should be remembered and I think I will come here again."- Waraphon Peer Helper is a very special organization at Liberty consisting of caring and dedicated students interested in helping others. Under the direction of Mrs. Amy Watson, students learn how to listen to people and how to help them find their own solutions to problems. Peer Helper participate in a class where they learn about problems such as family situations and dru s. While learning how to help others, Peer Helpers also learn a lot about themselves and hold a high trust level in the classroom. Students also design skits for "Lifeline Theater and elementary school children. Always eager to learn, Peer Helpers also attend assembles to learn more about other schools' programs and how to improve theirs. These students deserve much credit for their willingness to always lend an ear or a shoulder to cry on.

Wrapping Up the Flag,

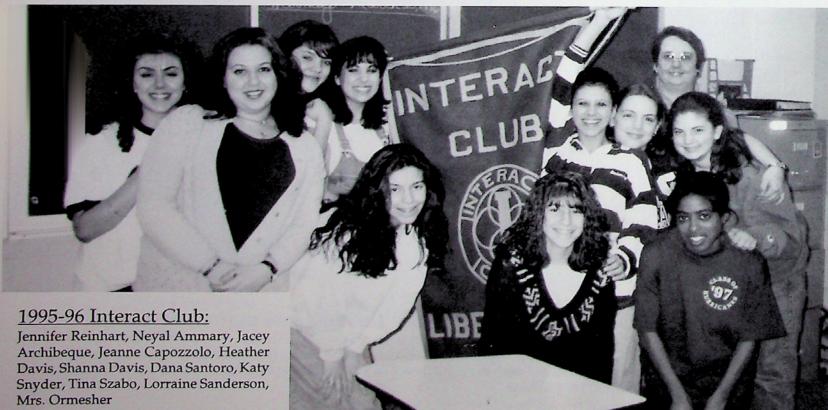

Mrs. Ormesher concludes yet another session of the Interact Club.

Group Hug...

Jacey Archibeque, Dana Santoro, and Jeanne Capozzolo share a moment during their meeting.

1 nteract Club "Helping the Community"

Smiling Brightly,

Neyal Ammary shows us that smile that has brought goodness into the hearts of the children. Neyal is just one example of all the lovely people who use their free time to help those less fortunate. The Interact Club helps out those suffering from illness and poverty.

A small group that is a big help, the Interact Club is a community service organization sponsored by the Rotary.

Advised by Mrs.
Rebecca Ormesher, this year's members, along with many other members, participated in a fall BowlA-Thon to benefit Cystic Fibrosis.

Members also made candy bags for pediatric patients at Halloween and attended a luncheon with Rotary members.

Finally, this benevolent group sponsors a young girl in Ecuador. They correspond through letters. For various holidays and for her birthday, gifts and some money were sent, putting a smile on her face.

The Interact Club goes around throughout the community spreading their good will, as an example for all to see. "Student Government really does a lot for our school. If we weren't around, people would notice something missing."

Student Government "We rule the school"

Liberty High's Student Government consists of a group of highly dedicated students who work hard to help make our school more enjoyable. Under the advisory of Miss Jane Kapsalis, Student Government consists of four officers and student-elected senators from each of the four classes. This year's officers are: President Virginia Largay, Vice President Jeff Acherica Secretary Jen Kilpatrick, and Treasurer Nimel Theodore. Student Government participates in Student Advisory meetings with the Superintendent to discuss issues in our schools. They also organize and participate in events and activities like Homecoming, Spirit Week, the Variety Show, Senior Citizen Luncheons, and Morning Announcements.

The organization known as DECA, advised by Miss Jennifer Grant, helps to prepare interested students to enter the business world.

An acronym for Distributive Education Clubs of America, DECA is targeted at marketing, management, and distribution. Members participate in the North Atlantic Regional Conference, as well as state and national Career Development Conferences. DECA members also partake in district, state, and national contests in various levels and subjects.

As of the winter DECA District 6 Career Development Conference, Tori Zettlemoyer and Stephanie Conway had first places. In addition, 20 other Liberty students placed in the top six places at their level. DECA also attended the state conference held at Seven Springs Resort. Ernie Stark, Tanya Seyfried, and Dawn Kratzer were among Liberty's best at the conference.

Liberty is proud of this organization for their repeated victories in competitions.

SWAP & SADD "Making a Difference"

These two groups, SADD and SWAP, have worked hard to make a difference in Liberty's community. Students Against Drunk Driving is an organization headed by Mr. Cecchini that educates fellow students about the dangers of drinking and driving. Members this year ran a red & black ribbon campaign and are currently painting a mural in the Commons Building. The SADD Chapter is especially active during the holiday and prom seasons.

Students With a Purpose is another organization of devoted students headed by Mr. David Erikson, a youth pastor who comes to Liberty to meet with these students. SWAP is student-directed Bible study group and is open to all students of any religion. Both clubs are making the world a better place.

Speech & Debate "Outstanding Orators"

Speech and Debate is one of the many activities at Liberty High School where students can master a useful skill -- the art of speaking. Members of the Speech and Debate Club learn to become quick with both their words and with their wit. Students can compete in actual debates, solo, or dual interpretation. Under the direction of Miss Jennifer Grant, Carleste Hughes and John Fegan were Speech and Debate National Qualifiers this year. A job well done!

Tatino Youth Leadership & Unidos

"Cultural Pride"

Liberty High School Latino Youth Leadership has been a great success. It is one of Liberty's most active clubs. It is a group which is encouraging Latino students to be leaders and share their Latino culture. They participate in a numerous amount of outside activities. They meet each week and organize different events to take place in school. One of their great activities is the Latino Luncheon. It lets the faculty and some students experience a part of the Latino culture while they eat Puerto Rican dishes. This Luncheon is held in the faculty dinning area and is complete with food, decoration, and music.

Liberty Theatre presented to the public "It's a Wonderful Life" on December 1st and 2nd. Mr. Eric Smith and student assistant, Debora Lehr, directed a very talented cast. The guardian angel, Clarence, played by Mike Hartney, led the audience through the holiday season with the main characters of George (Mike Pesavento) and Mary (Keely Snyder). "It's a Wonderful Life" left the audience with a heart-felt holiday spirit.

Hard Work Pays Off

Nimel Theodore looks tired after practicing long hours with the Orchestra, preparing for the Winter Concert.

"Being a member of Choraliers was a great experience. Although it was my first year, everyone was really nice and helped me out a lot. Through it, I made many new friendships which I am sure will last for a long time, even after we graduate."

70 inter Concert "Music to Our Ears"

On December 8, 1995, Liberty High School performed a wonderful Winter Concert which filled everyone's hearts and minds with holiday spirit. Liberty's Choir, directed by Ms. Nancy Shumaker and assisted by Mr. Kevin Long, sang out joyously. They sang some of everyone's favorite holiday songs and some that had never been sang before. Mr. Gregory McGill's orchestra also brought music into the holiday event to support the choirs sweet, melodic voices. The Art Department at Liberty supplied the beautiful holiday decorations that adorned the stage and made the whole event even more memorable. This year's concert was excellently done and was a wonderful display of our students' talents.

"A Wealth of Knowledge"

As the proud representatives of Liberty in numerous contests, Scholastic Scrimmage team members and Math Team members are certainly competing with intelligence. Led by Mr. Sweigard, this year's team consists of Victor Hart, Ricardo Signes, and Captain Nimel Theodore. The fourth member alternates between Craig Derbenwick and Michael Miles. The team holds frequent practices on Sunday and Monday nights to prepare for their tough season of competition. The Scholastic Scrimmage members, joined with other outstanding Liberty students, also comprise the Math Team. The Math Team is advised by Mrs. Miller and is equally successful. These mathematicians participate in contests run by colleges as well as the Pennsylvania Math League contests and the nationwide American High School Mathematics examination. As they are off to a great start, both teams expect outstanding results for their efforts this year.

PRINCIPAL

Mr. William Burkhardt

Mr. Burkhardt happily responds to the activities of the Spirit Week pep rally.

TO THE CLASS OF 1996,

Your senior year is fast coming to a close. Hopefully it has been filled with many enjoyable memories.

As your principal, it has been gratifying to see the growth that has occurred within your class over the past four years. The Class of 1996 has provided our school with leaders in academics, athletics, the arts and music programs.

The Class of 1996 has enthusiastically been engaged in spirit week, homecoming, postprom, the junior-senior prom, senior breakfast, theater productions and so much more. Your contribution to Liberty High School will endure long after you have graduated. I hope you think of us often and return whenever you are in the seea.

Good ack and Godspeed, William Burnhardt

Our principal, Mr. William Burkhardt, proudly poses with the LHS flag.

IN MEMORY OF

CORRINE ELIZABETH RIGHTMEYER September 13, 1977 - March 13, 1994

PEDRO ABEL 1. JR. June 10, 1981 - June 1998

Corrine,

You and I were best friends for five years. I've never been as close to anyone as I was to you. Losing you was one of the worst things I've ever experienced. We laughed, we cried, we fought, and we made up. But then again, what's a best friend without any fights? I miss you immensely and wish you were here to share graduation with me. I loved you like a sister and I still do. In my heart, you'll never die.

I'll Never Forget You, Love, Stacy and how many people loved him. Pedro had so much more to live for and look forward to. He had other hopes and dreams that won't come true because of the choice he made. Though this tragedy has caused a great deal of heartache, it has taught us how precious life is and how much it means to others in ours lives. He'll always be in our hearts; his smile and memory will live on forever.

Pedro attended Northeast Middle School last year and would have been a part of the freshmen class this year. He was anxious to become a student at Liberty, but in his mind, the pressures of his life made him incapable to go on any longer. Pedro was an extraordinary person who wasn't afraid to be himself. He didn't realize how many friends he had he 1996 Cauldron, Volume 71, was printed in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania by Herff Jones Yearbook. With the guidance of company representative and friend, Nancy Tunis, we, the Liberty High School Cauldron Staff, produced another famous Cauldron yearbook. All senior, underclassmen, and faculty portraits were taken by Christmas City Photography Studio of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. The photographs for the sports and arts/activities sections were also supplied by Christmas City Studios and the Cauldron photography staff. Seven hundred copies of the Cauldron were purchased and distributed to the students, faculty, and administration of Liberty High School. The senior class received their books free of charge with the payment of class dues, and all other books were sold for either $45 or $50.

This year's book was printed on Allegiance 110# paper (color) and Bordeaux 80# paper (black and white). The cover is a Vista Custom design, on Matte Black with a silkscreened black overlay. The cover picture of Liberty was taken by Mr. George Baker at Christmas City Studios. The end sheets are Herff Jones' "Crystalline." All of the dividers have a spot color design in Navy and Scarlet, and the font used throughout the book is Palatino. This year's book consists of 264 pages, 16 of those in color and 16 in the form of a supplement which will arrive in September featuring many of Liberty's spring activities.

The Cauldron staff would like to give an enormous "Thank You" to Mr. Burkhardt for his encouragement during the year, and Mr. Greg Martucci for his assistance in the 320 Mac Lab. Also, thanks to Ricardo Signes for his editing skills, Susan Ofrichter for proofreading, the University of Virginia for permitting us to use parts of their cover design, the Liberty Life staff, our families, and the Christmas City Studio staff, for they helped us so much whenever we needed it. Finally, we would like to recognize Mrs. Joanne Garcsar for constantly being down our backs about deadlines and being a friend.
