Nicholson Jr., Stanley

Parents Receive
Son's Purple Heart

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Nicholson, 112 West Market Street, received the Purple Heart awarded to their son, Sgt. Andrew Nicholson, for wounds received while fighting in Germany.

A member of the 137th Infantry Division, he trained in various camps in the States before going overseas last summer. He was wounded during the big Allied drive shortly before Christmas.

Another son, T/5 Stanley Jr., is stationed with the Signal Corps in the South Pacific.
