

Frank, Bernard.

Earns Awards

SEP 29 1945

Cpl. Bernard Frank, former Allentown attorney, of 229 South Sixteenth Street, Allentown, has been awarded four bronze battle stars for participation in the campaigns of Northern France, Ardennes and Central Europe, at his 3rd army station in Kvilda, Czechoslovakia.

Cpl. Frank entered the Army in June, 1943, and served with the 28th Engineer Battalion until September of that year, when he was assigned to the 94th Infantry Division, serving as a classification specialist for the 390th Field Artillery Battalion.

At the present time Corporal Frank is teaching a class in American economics at the battalion school. This course is a part of the educational program now being conducted by the Army for soldiers in Europe. Recently he returned from a sight-seeing tour in Switzerland, and while there telephoned his wife, the former Muriel Levy, who resides with her parents at the 16th Street address.

Frank received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and with further training on maneuvers with the 94th Division in Tennessee. He went overseas with that outfit 13 months ago and was first stationed in England before going to France, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany.
