ref:

At least a tree with each new build

Why is it so difficult to get more trees put in along our streets?

Everybody:

You are invited to attend the next Bethlehem Environmental Advisory Council's meeting, which will be held on Thursday, 10/3/19 at 7 p.m. at Illick's Mill. Dan Shaffer, the city's new forester is on the agenda. Come out to meet him and ask your questions directly to the source. This will be the first time the EAC members will meet him too.
