

Wolfe, Alfred

Lieut. Alfred Wolfe
Completes Training

Lieut. Alfred J. Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wolfe, 56 West Third Street, has completed training at Maxwell Field, Ala., and is now visiting his parents prior to departure for the Pacific as pilot of a B-29 crew.

JUL 27 1945
The young officer, a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High School, sang in Nativity Episcopal Church choir. His wife, the former Molly Amigo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Amigo, will remain in Bethlehem with the Wolfe's 11-month-old daughter, Toni, 2225 Lincoln Street. Her father, Fred Amigo, was a lieutenant commander during World War I.

July 27, 1945