Wounded Local Men
Arrive In New York
On Army Transports

FEB 20 1945

The local men were among the 988 wounded soldiers who arrived in New York from Europe yesterday aboard three Army transports. They are Staff Sergeant Frank Platusich, son of Mrs. George Platusich, 1175 East Mechanic Street and T/5 Harold J. Lobb, brother of Miss Flora M. Lobb, 12 Jackson Avenue, Pen Argyl.
