

Bloss, Kenneth E.

Three Local Men Report at Norfolk

Three Bethlehem Navy men have reported at the Naval Training Station, Norfolk, Va., to train for duties aboard a new destroyer of the Atlantic fleet.

The men are: Kenneth E. Bloss, 21, watertender, second class, USNR; William R. Luchtenberg, 18, seaman second class, USNR, and Steven J. Roumeliotes, 34, fireman, second class, USNR.

Bloss is a veteran of 24 months' duty aboard a gunboat in the Atlantic. He is the son of Mrs. Verna Bloss, and is married to the former Virginia Schwartz, 432 Main Street, Freemansburg. They have two children, Georgia, four months, and Regina, 22 months. He has a brother, Charles, 24, who is a signalman, first class, in the Navy. Before entering the Navy, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He attended Steel City school.

Luchtenberg is the son of Emil Luchtenberg, 220 Seventh Avenue. He attended Nitschmann school.

Roumeliotes is a veteran of 16 months' duty aboard a destroyer in the Atlantic. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Roumeliotes, 8 West Fourth Street. Before entering the Navy he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He was graduated from Bethlehem High School.

July 24, 1945