

Compton Jr., Harry W.

Army Picks Local Boy For Special Training

Pvt. Harry Walter Compton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Compton, 829 Hawthorne Road, this city, has reported for duty at Wayne University, Detroit, Mich., where he will undergo intensive training under the Army Specialized Training Program.

Compton, chosen for specialized training after exhaustive Army tests in which he showed marked aptitude, will study the basic engineering course at Wayne. He will be eligible for advanced engineering training upon satisfactory completion of the 36 weeks basic course.

Compton was graduated from Liberty High School in 1941 and attended Penn State College before entering the Army.

November 3, 1943