

Jasar, Louis

Middletown Soldier
On Furlough After
2½ Years Overseas

JUL 20 1944
Louis Jasar, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Jasar, Middletown, is home on a 21-day furlough, his first in almost three years.

He was drafted in October 1941, and went overseas, January, 1942. He spent two years in New Guinea and six months in Australia.

Jasar was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before induction. After his furlough, he will report to a camp in North Carolina.
