

Ackerman, Richard

Local G-I Sees Action

On Many Fronts

APR 17 1945

In a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ackerman, 314 East Union Boulevard, their son, Pfc. Richard Ackerman, informs them that he has been assigned to a headquarters division.

Since joining the combat forces, the young soldier has seen lots of action. Five months after he donned the uniform, he participated in engagements in Africa. He later was at Anzio, and subsequently in the Rome engagement.

He was with the Seventh Army in the invasion of southern France, and was up front when the American soldiers fought their way into Germany. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
