

Adams, Lillian A.

Pfc. Lillian Adams
Assigned As Driver
In European Area

As the Nazis are driven back further into Germany, the need for vital war materials grows, hence the Air Transport Command base of the European Division under Brigadier General Earl S. Hoag which supplies these materials by air, has had to increase its tempo proportionately. American soldiers, Seabees and WACs are all working together at this increased speed to meet the demand.

MAR 2 1945
Pfc. Lillian A. Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adams, 1225 East Fourth Street, is assigned to this station as a driver for the Motor Pool. She has been in the WAC since February 15, 1943, and has been stationed in the European Division for the past five months. Before entering the service, Pfc. Adams was employed by the Klein's Dress Company. She is a graduate of Washington Junior High School.

March 2, 1945