LOCAL BOYS MEET IN NORTH AFRICA

Charles S. Nemes, seaman first class, and James Tisico, of Morton Street, met and enjoyed a reunion in North Africa. The boys attended school together and have been neighbors nearly all their lives. They enlisted in the Navy, August 20, 1942, took their boot training together at Newport, R. I., and then separated. This has been their first reunion. Both boys are safe and in the best of health.
