

Makos, John

Home On Furlough After Overseas Duty

Pvt. John Nakata, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nakata, is spending a 30-day furlough at his home, 245 Seventh Avenue, after serving two and one-half years with the U. S. Army in Iran, Persia. First assigned to a hospital unit, he was later transferred to an ordnance group and is presently serving with the Railway Transportation Corps hauling supplies to Russia.
