

Reed, Charles M.

Corporal Reed

MAR 21 1945

Charles M. Reed, brother of William F. Reed, 246 Seventh Avenue, was recently promoted to Corporal and is celebrating his birthday anniversary overseas today. Cpl. Reed was inducted in March, 1942, and sent to Fort Bragg, N. C., to receive his training. He has been serving overseas as a Paratrooper with the 101st Airborne Division which saw action at Bastogne. Reed won the weatherweight championship of the 101st Division and also fought in the Golden Gloves Tournament in New York. Prior to his induction he was employed at the Saucon Shipping Yards of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
