

Steidinger Jr, John

Meet After 4 Years

Cpl. John Steidinger, Jr., son of John Steidinger, R. D. No. 1, Bethlehem, and Paul L. Frankenfield, S 2-C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Frankenfield, R. D. No. 1, Bethlehem, recently met in Miami, Florida.

Cpl. Steidinger recently returned after 35 months in the South Pacific Theater, where he received four citations, five campaign stars, the good conduct medal, and an oak leaf cluster. After a 21 day furlough he was sent to a redistribution center in Miami, Florida, and later to Kansas.

S. 2-C Frankenfield entered the Navy Aug. 27, 1943, and was in the D-Day invasion when his ship was struck by a mine. He returned to the United States in July, 1944, and was assigned to patrol duty in Seventh Naval District.
