

DAVCO, George J.

Advances

OCT 25 1943

Word has been received that on October 15 George J. Davco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Davco Sr., of 647 Ridge Street, Bethlehem, had been advanced to the rating of First Class Petty Officer. He enlisted in the Coast Guard November 18, 1942, and received his boot training at Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn, N. Y. After his boot training he was sent to Groton, Conn., where he graduated from Motor Mechanic School and received his rating of Second Class Petty Officer March 20, 1943. From March until July he was doing North Atlantic patrol duty and since July he has been doing convoy duty on the North Atlantic. He graduated from Bethlehem Technical High School in 1939 and took a three-year Penn State Extension Course in Metallurgy and worked three years in the mechanical repair shop, Bethlehem Steel Company.

October 25, 1943