

Traybar, George C.

Advances in L. S. T.

Word has been received that George C. Traybar, son of Mrs. Mary Traybar, 409 Wyandotte Street, has been promoted to Motor Machinist's Mate 1-C somewhere in the Pacific on an L. S. T.

He entered the service in August, 1943, after graduating from Bethlehem Technical School and received his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. He was immediately sent to the Naval Training Diesel School in Virginia, after which he was assigned to his ship.

March 16, 1945